« Carano 4 Children » foundation

The participants most enjoyed the sense of achievement and recognition during the award ceremony. They were thrilled by the opportunity to showcase their work on an international stage and to connect with other students who shared similar interests. The overall excitement of being in Brussels, surrounded by creativity and innovation, added to the uniqueness of the experience.

- What new skills or knowledge did the participant(s) gain?

The participants gained valuable skills in creativity, collaboration, and presentation as they showcased their work to an international audience. They also developed a deeper understanding of the importance of global connections and cultural exchange. Additionally, they enhanced their ability to express their ideas effectively and confidently, which will benefit their future academic and personal projects.

- How will this experience help the participant(s) in developing their talent further?

This experience will help the participants further develop their talent by boosting their confidence and motivating them to pursue their creative ideas with even more enthusiasm. Being exposed to an international platform allowed them to see the impact of their work on a larger scale, inspiring them to refine their skills and think more critically about their projects. It also encouraged them to explore new areas of creativity, learn from others, and continue developing their talents in a global context.
